THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 14, 1859.

RELIGIOUS EXCITEMENT IN IRELAND. One of those religious phenomena, well known in this country as revivals, but not so frequent in Europe, is at present taking place in Ireland. It commenced in the Presbyterian parish of Connor, Antrim county, among the "Prayer Societies." We have noticed this revival before. A letter to the N. York Courier gives the following account:

The spirit of zeal, thus enkindled, spread into the neighboring towns and villages.— The people of Ahoghill, Broughshaue, and Ballymena were brought under the same influence. The minister opened the churches, daily, for meetings for prayer and praise.— These were crowded; and soon others began to be held in private houses, the streets, and the fields. At these amid deep solemnity which pervaded all, and an excited awakening which stirred many, some were so affected—"stricken," as they phrased it—as to cry out audibly; after which, there was bodily prostration, as well as mental agony, which continued, in some a longer, in some a shorter time, before "peace" was enjoyed.

The news of these strange doings spread abroad in all directions. Visitors from Bel-fast, on the East, and Coleraine on the West, came to see and hear; and s me of those who had felt the influence, visited these, and intermediate and adjacent towns. From village to village, and from hamlet to hamlet it has spread, and not only is the whole of Antrim prevaded by it, but it extends far into the neighboring counties. Newtownlimavady and Derry, Westward, Antrim and Carrickfergus, Eastward, Rookstown, Dungannon and Armagh, Southward, are all mentioned in the newspapers, now filled with reports of the movement, as visited, more or less strikingly, with these singular manifestations.

Belfast, as the largest town, with the greatest number of churches and zealous ministers, with a band of devoted auxiliaries in the form of "town missionaries," is now the most conspicuous scene of this extraordinary visitation, and there, as elsewhere, it is not confined to one denomination of Christians. It commenced with the Presbyterians, and is displayed most signally among them; Independents and Methodists, all recognize it, and participate in the blessing.

MARRYING FOR MONEY.

A woman who professes to speak from experience writes thus of marrying for money:
"I was married for money. This was ten years ago, and they have been ten years of purgatory. I have had bad luck as a wife, for my husband and I have scarcely one taste in common. He wishes to live in the country, which I hate. I like the thermometer at seventy-five degrees, which he hates. He likes the children brought up at home, instead of at school, which I hate. I like music and wish to go to c neerts, which he hates. He likes roast pork, which I hate; is what we both cannot have though we are always trying for it—the last word. I have had bad luck as a mother; for two such huge. selfish, passionate, unmanageable boys never tormented a feeble mother since boys began. I wish I had called them both Cain. At this moment they have just been quarrelling over their marbles. Mortimer has torn off Orville's collar, and Orville has applied his colt-like heel upon Mortimer's ribs, while the baby Zenobias, in my lap, who never sleeps more than half an hour at a time, and cries all the time she is awake, has been aroused by their din to scream in chorus. I have had bad luck as a house-keeper, for I never keep a chambermaid more than three weeks. And as to cooks, I look back bewildered on the long phantasmagoria of faces flying through my kitchen, as a mariner remembers a rapid succession of thunder gusts and hurricanes in the Gulf of Mexico. My new chambermaid bounced into the room yesterday, flirting her dusters and muttering:-"Real old maid after all!" just because I showed her a table on which I could write 'slut' with my fingers in the dust. I never see my plump, happy sisters, and then glance in the mirror at my own cadaverous, long, doleful visage, without wishing myself an old maid. Yet half of my sex marry as I did -not for love, but for fear-fear of dying old

WE are authorized by the proprietors to offer at private sale this extensive establishment. The MILL BUILDING is fire proof, built on piles, with stone foundation, and is situated directly on the River front, and within a few yards of the Orange & Alexandria and Manassas Gap Railroads, with Wharves, and depth of water sufficient to accommodate vessels of the largest class. Its dimensions are 122 feet in length, by 80 feet in width, four and a half stories high, and is covered with slate.

A GRAIN ELEVATOR is also attached, by which grain can be rapidly discharged from vessels immediately into the Mill. The GRAIN BINS are capable of holding 70,000 bushels of Wheat. The Elevator is worked by a small engine, separate from that used in manufacturing, so that grain can be received whi'e the Mill is not in operation. There are TWELVE PAIRS OF STONES, of 41 feet diameter, capable of manufacturing, when in full work, about 800 barrels of Flone per day.

The ENGINES and BOILERS are very supe rior, made by Otis Tufts, of Boston, Mass., without regard to expense. There are six Boilers, with return flues. The Engines are high pressure, and of 250 horse power. WATER and GAS have been introduced throughout the entire establishment, with Hose, &c., attached to the water pipes in each story. The above is only a general description of this extensive Flouring Mill. Persons desirous of purchasing, will, of course, visit the establishment, where every information will be afforded them. The Machinery is all nearly new, and of the most approved description, it having been the de-sign of the proprietors to erect a Mill second to none in this section of the country. In it will be found every thing appertaining to a first-class Flour-

A COOPER'S SHOP, of brick, covered with state, and with iron window shutters, adjoins the Mill. Its dimensions are 100 feet in length, by 31 feet in width, two stories high. It is per fectly fire proof, and has in it a full complement of Tools, &c., all in perfect order. There are now about 7,000 FLOUR BARRELS on hand, which will be sold with the Mill. Also, a lot of Cooper's stuff, STAVES, HEADING, &c.

It is rarely that such an establishment, so extensive and complete in all its appointments, is offered to the public. The terms of the sale will be made easy.

STEAM TUG AND CANAL BOATS FOR SALE. We have FOR SALE an excellent STEAM—TUG, three years old, 96 feet in length, 7 feet hold, substantially built, and of great power. Her Engines and Boilers are in first rate order. She is capable of carrying 6,000 bush of Grain under deck, drawing 6 feet of water.

We have, also, SEVEN first-class CANAL BOATS, nearly new, and in good order. They carry about 125 tous each, on 4 feet of water.

We are authorized to sell the above much below their cost, and on very casy terms, and would low their cost, and on very easy terms, and would invite the attention of parties interested in Canal navigation to the great bargains here offered.

SOMBRERO GUANO. N calling the attention of the public to this val-uable and recently discovered deposit of this fertilizing article, we will merely state, that like all other phosphatic GUANOS, its most valuable constituent is phosphoric acid, or bone phosphate of lime; and that its mercantile value, as compared with other GUANOS of its kind, may be easily determined by the amount of phosphoric acid or bone phosphate of lime it contains. In order, therefore, to give the public a thorough knowledge of what SOMBRERO GUANO does contain, we beg to refer to the following list of eminent chemists in different parts of the world, who have analyzed different cargoes, from average samples taken by themselves from the cargoes just as they arrive from the island, without drying or selection of specimens for analyzation. Each analysis will be exhibited, if required, under the original signature of each chemist named: Of phosphoric acid, estimated as equivalent to phosphate of lime, it is found to contain—

And for a like array of eminent authority, promisenously obtained from promisenous eargoes, in different parts of the world, we challenge a comparison with any phosphatic GUANO now for sale, mh 16—cotf FOWLE & CO. This land lies on the Rappahannock river, about a quarter of a mile from the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, and in an excellent neighborhood. There are on it, a very convenient DWELLING HOUSE, spacious barn, and other out-houses, all in good repair. A never failing spring of pure water, is within forty yards of the house—ice-house, and ice-pond, as near. The fields not in cultivation, are well set in grass, and taking into view its close proximity to the Railroad, Post Office, Grist Mili (a mile of), and other advantages, this farm may be safely recommended as very desirable property. Any one wishing to see the said farm will be shown it by Mr. H. T. Embry on the place.
